Straumann Group strengthens its sustainability efforts

Basel, 22 March 2021 – Aspiring to become a role model in its industry, the Straumann Group's Board and Executive Management will further strengthen its sustainability efforts including Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) aspects. Correspondingly, the Group decided to establish a sustainability accelerator initiative with the goal to define the scope, targets, roadmap and deliverables by 2022.

Furthermore, in addition to its well-established sustainability reporting which has been based on the Global Reporting Initiative (GRI) standard for the past 14 years, the company intends to incorporate industry-specific elements of the Sustainability Accounting Standards Board (SASB) into its Annual Report 2021.

About Straumann
