Medit IOS to coDiagnostiX®

Step-by-Step Guide

straumanngroup
Digital Solutions

How to Export and Import Scan Files

Medit IOS

Create a case in Medit Link App.

Scan a patient with Medit IOS in Medit Scan App.

Click “Complete”. Data Processing will start. Once the data processing is completed, export a scan file.

coDiagnostiX®

1

2

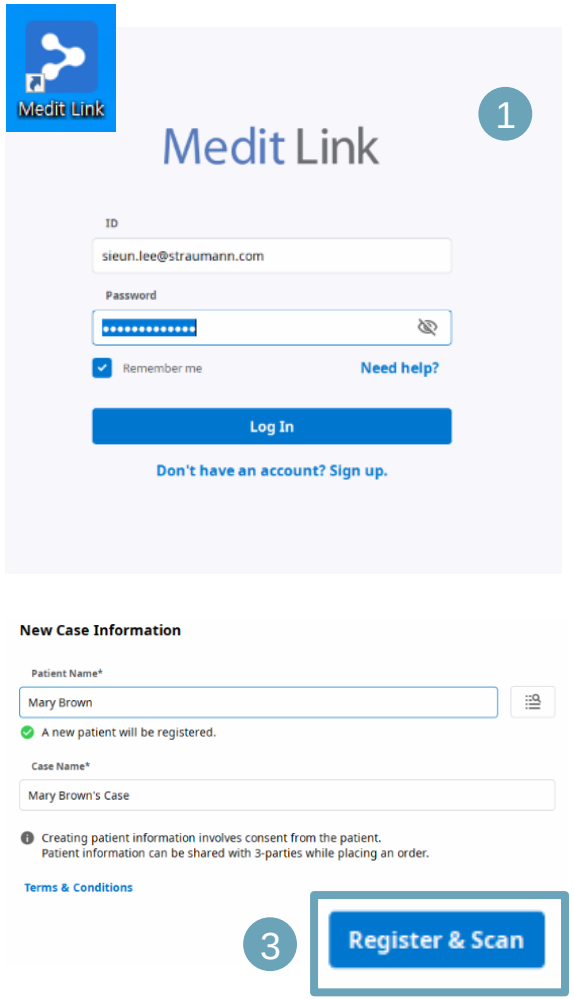
3

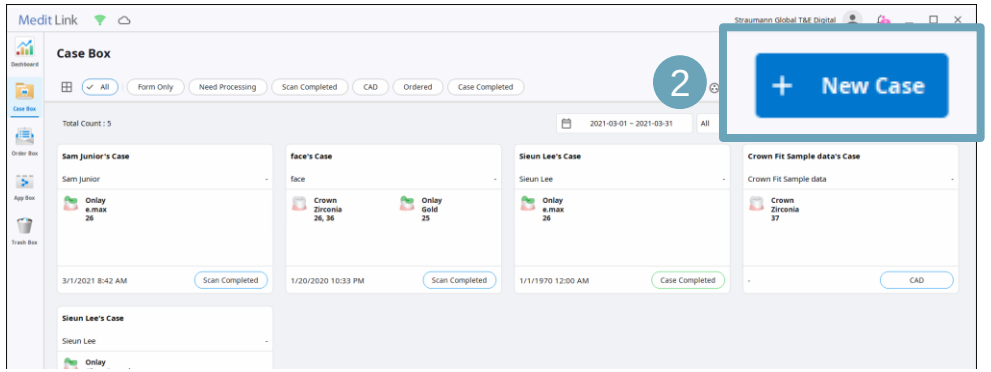
4

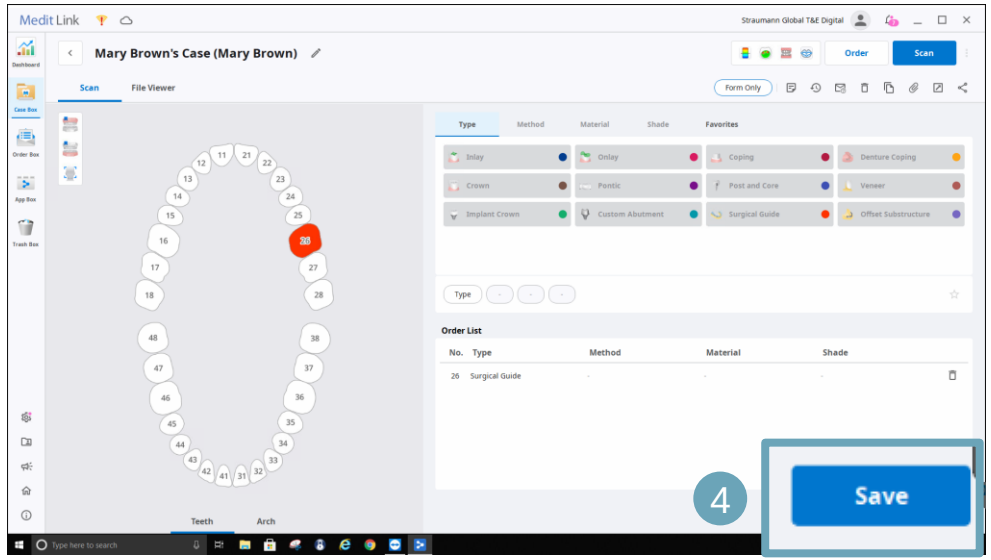
Import a scan file in coDiagnostiX® via the Add model scan dialog.

straumanngroup
Digital Solutions

How to Scan and Export Scan Files







1. Login to the Medit Link application with your account information.
2. Go to «Case Box» and click «New Case» button.
3. Fill out patient name and select «Register & Scan».
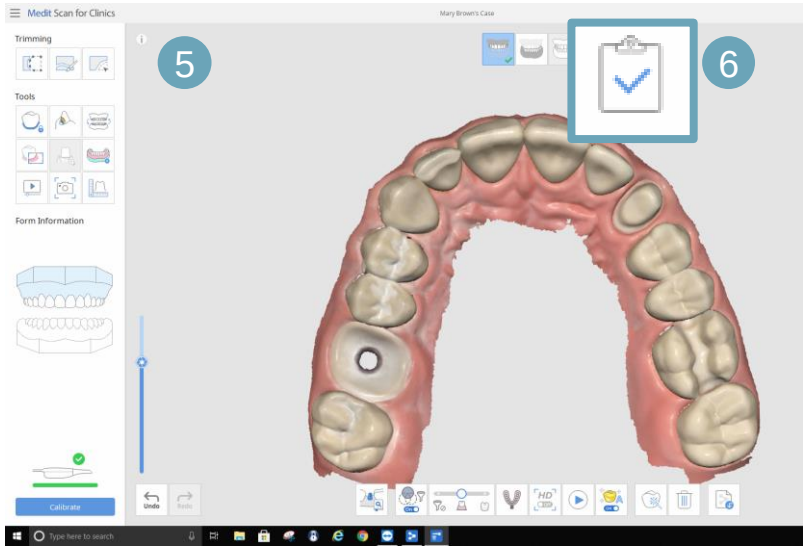
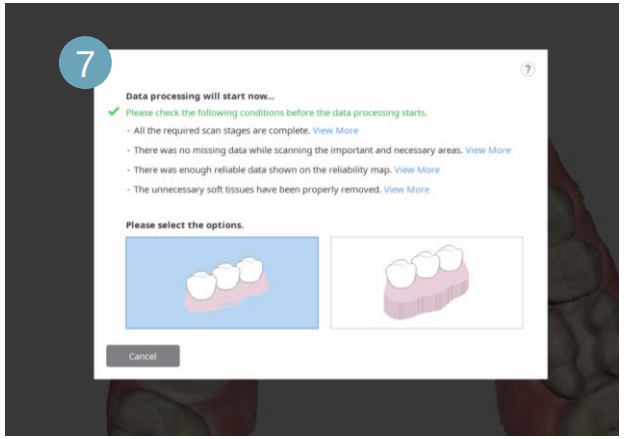
4. Fill out prescription and click «Scan». Medit Scan application will be launched.

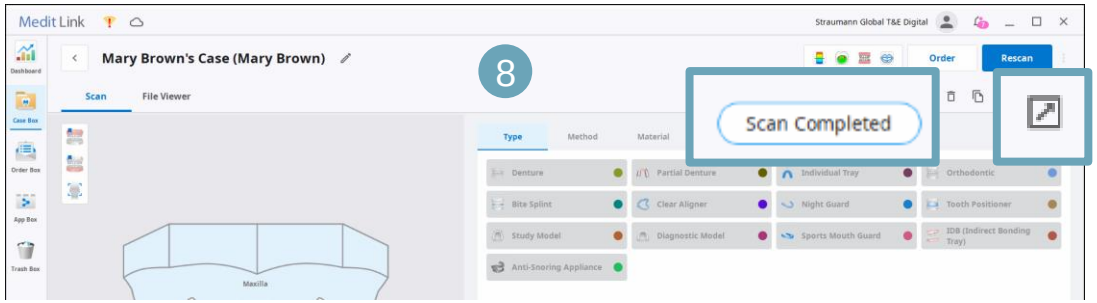
 Surgical Guide can be used as a type for surgical guide.*

straumanngroup
Digital Solutions

How to Scan and Export Scan Files







5 Scan a patient.

6 Click the «Complete» icon.

7 You can either select a standard digital model or a 3D printable model.
Data processing will start.

8 Once the data processing is completed, the status will change to Scan Completed.
Click the «Export» icon.

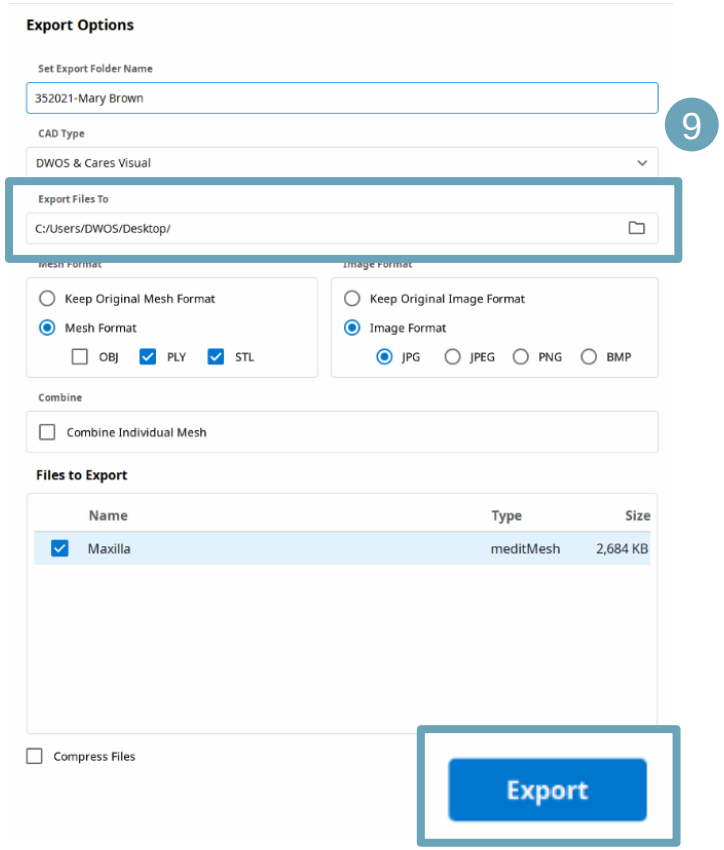
straumanngroup
Digital Solutions

How to Scan and Export Scan Files

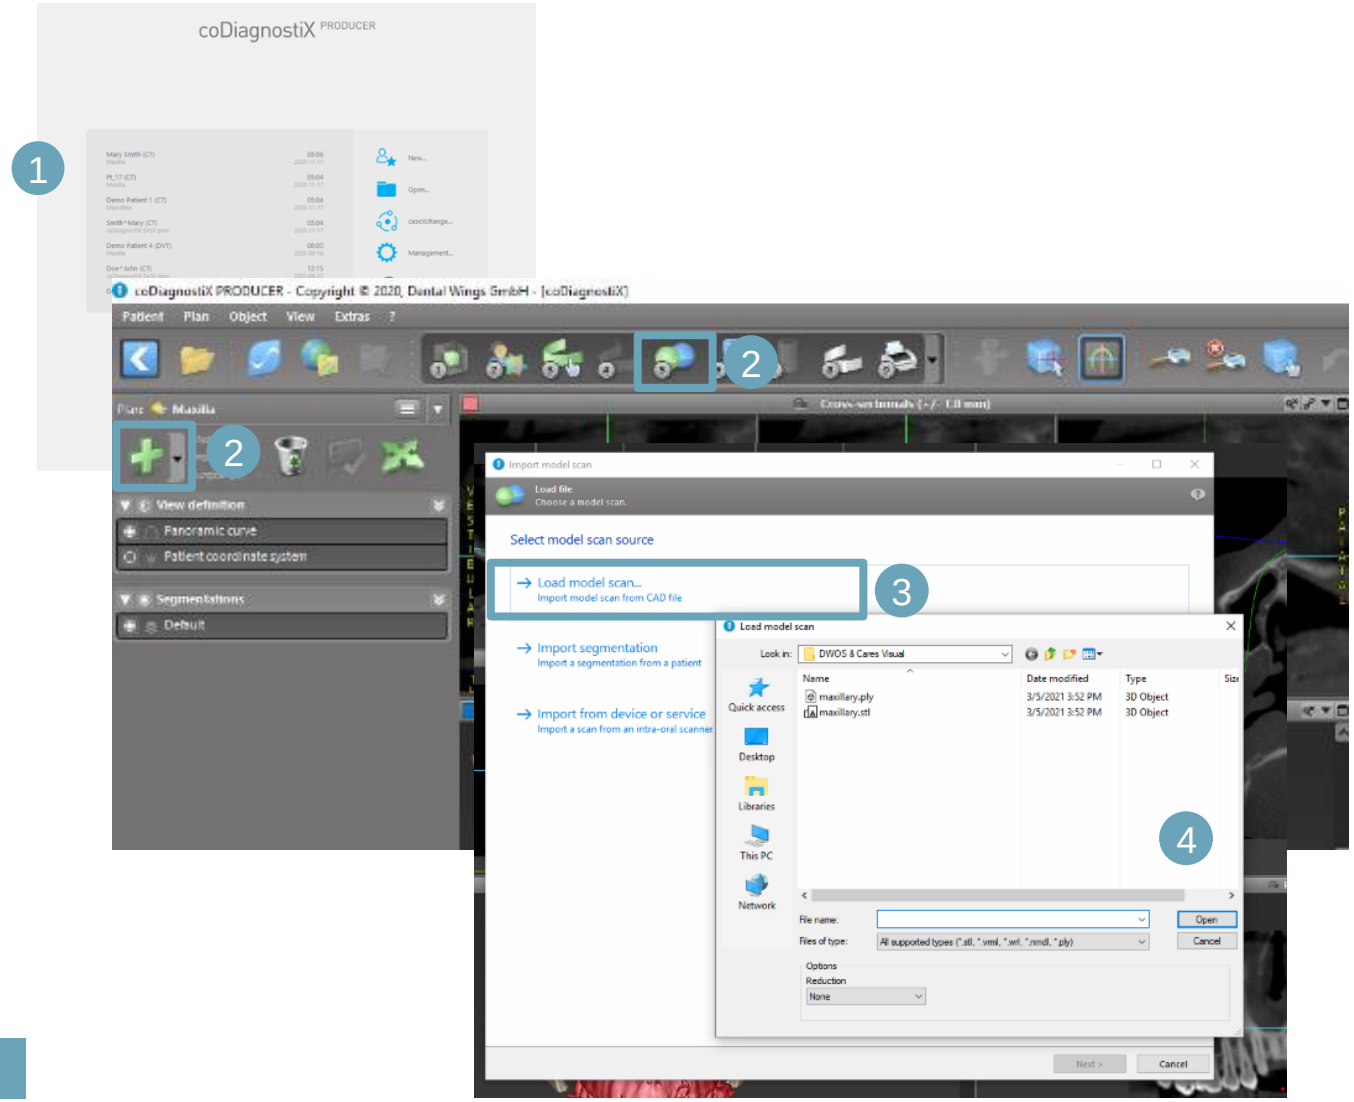


9

Choose a storage location for exported files.
Select the preferred scan format, either STL or PLY, and click the «Export» button.

straumanngroup
Digital Solutions

How to Import Scan Files



1. Open and review the case in coDiagnostiX®.

2. Select «Import model scan» on the top bar, or «Model scan» under the «+» icon on the left side.

   * For coDiagnostiX® EASY, the step is in «Model scans» under the Prepare data step.

3. Select «Load model scan».

4. Select the scan file and click «Use».

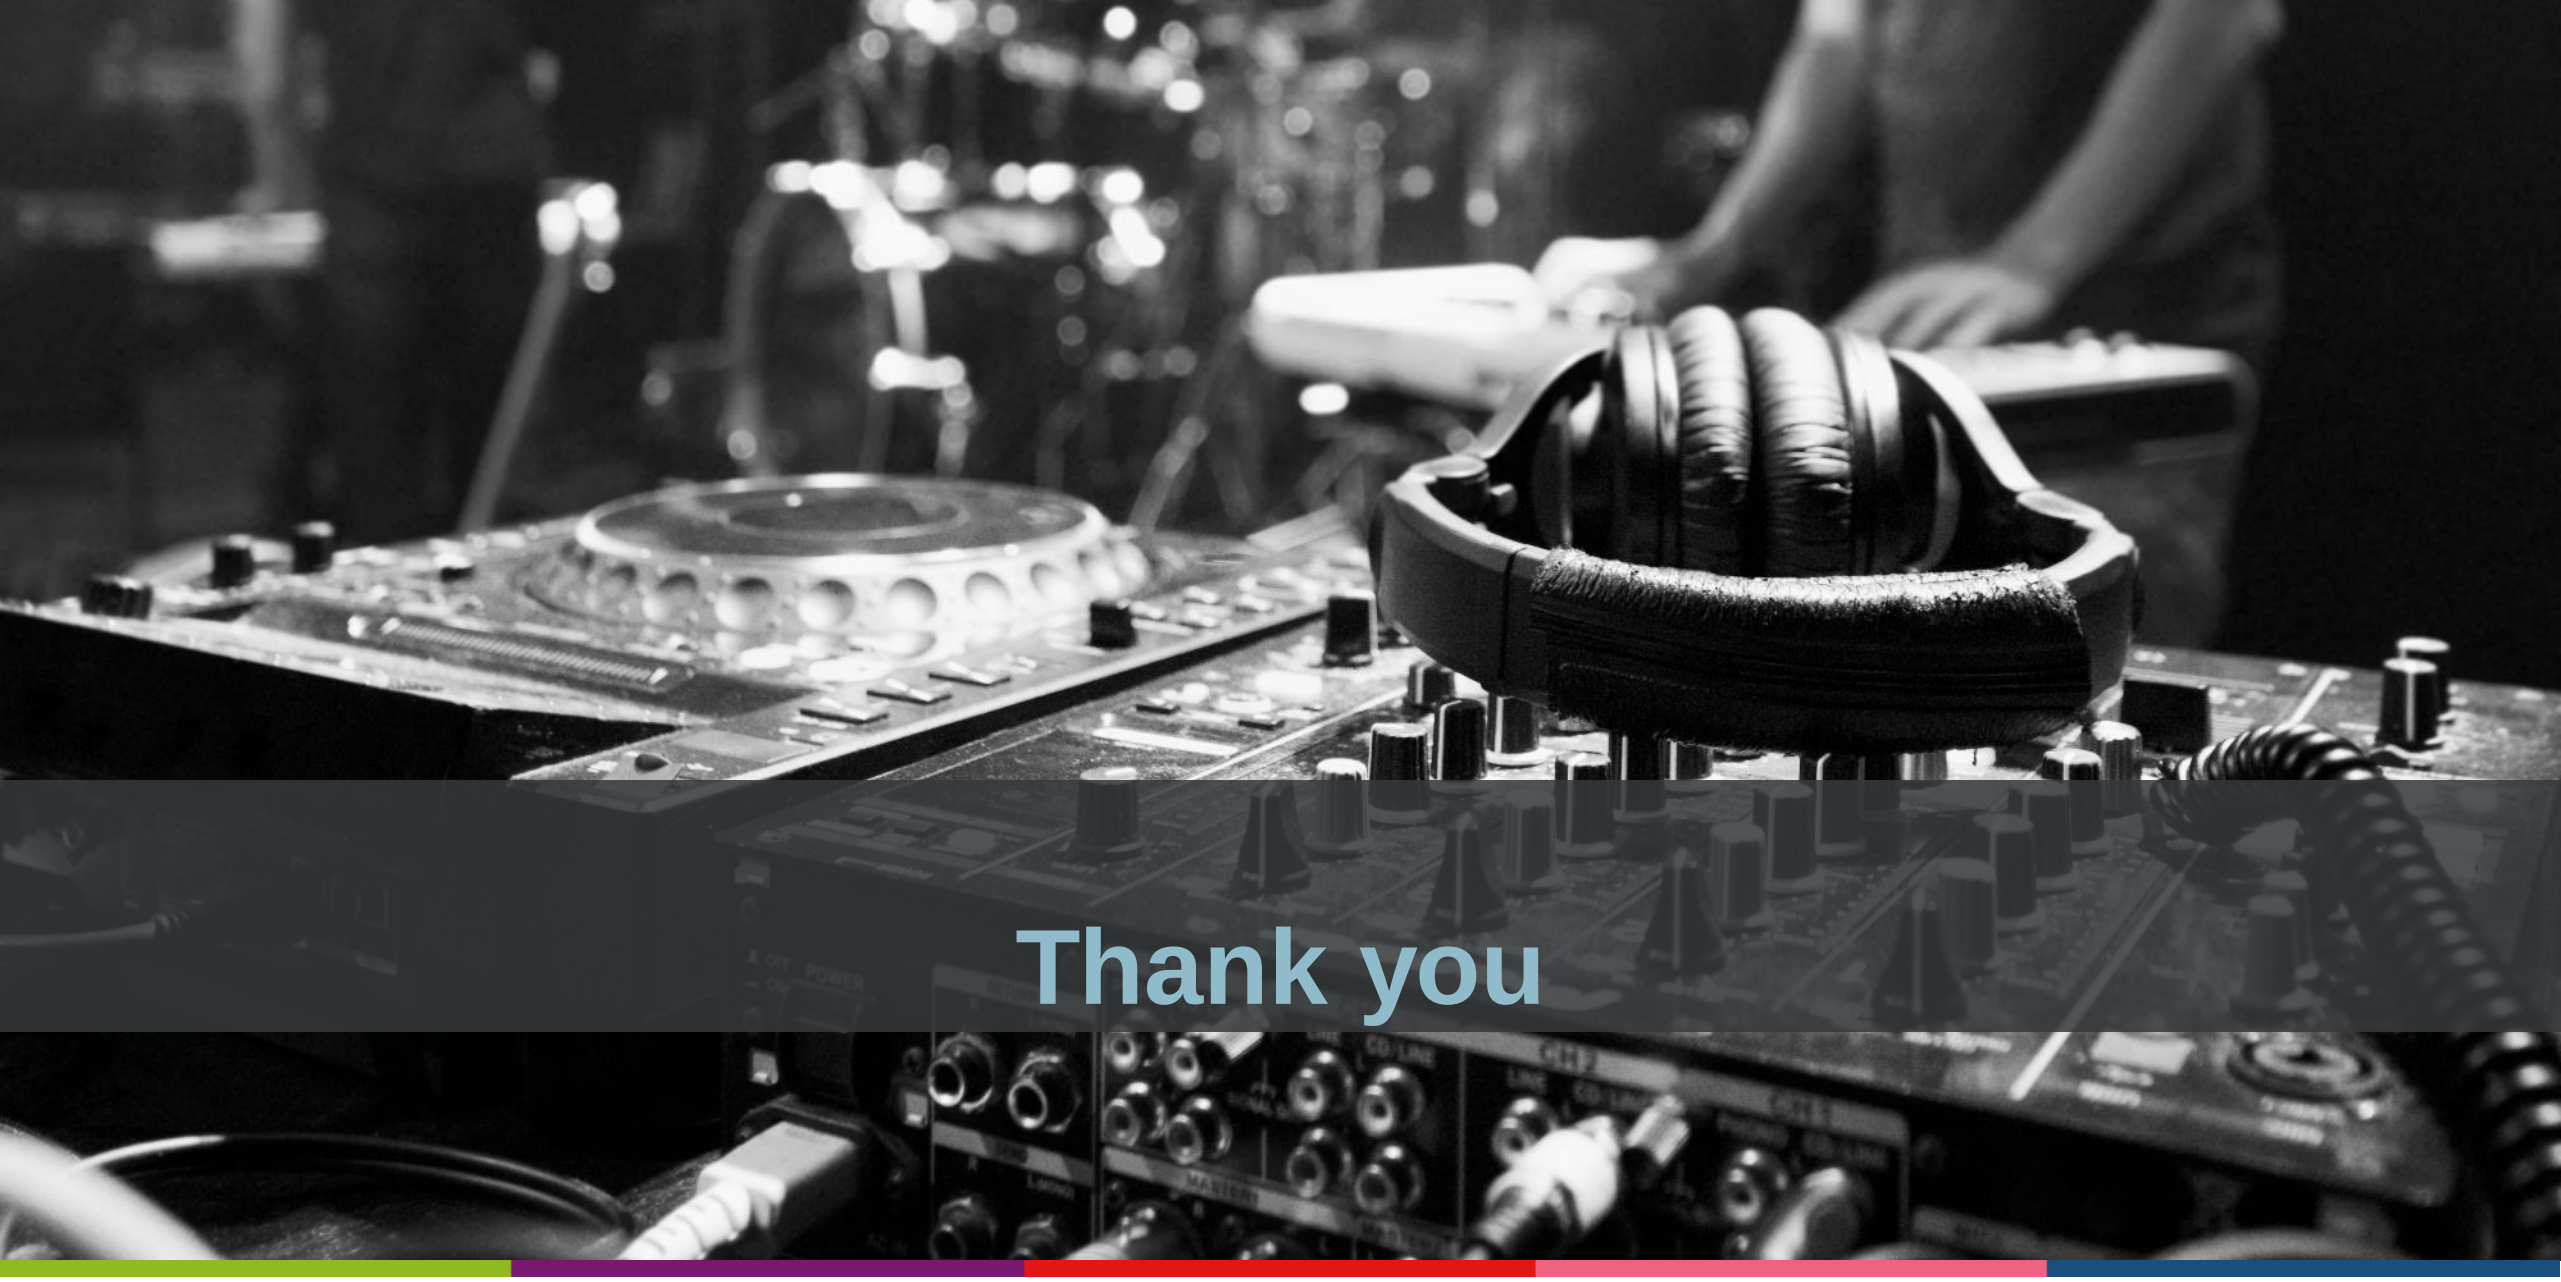
straumanngroup
Digital Solutions



Thank you

straumanngroup
Digital Solutions