FUTURE OF DENTISTRY

STRAUMANN AXS™ THE CORE OF THE STRAUMANN® INTEGRATED DIGITAL ECOSYSTEM.

Straumann AXS™ is a cloud based platform at the core of the Straumann® integrated digital ecosystem. It provides a modular, open and secure environment, enabling convenient and seamless dental treatment workflows that deliver an elevated customer experience.

An open, modular and AI-powered cloud-platform, giving access to a growing number of seamless workflows that are fully integrated and interconnected. It promotes efficiency, convenience, and collaboration. Straumann AXS™ is built on a legacy of in-depth clinical and technical expertise, to deliver a cutting-edge approach to dental care with secure patient data storage and data sharing, that meets today's security standards.

SIMPLICITY

Our cloud-based platform requires no software outlay and offers a simple, intuitive interface. It seamlessly consolidates patient data on one connected platform, offering effortless and straightforward access to patient treatments.

CONNECTIVITY

Our open and modular digital platform ensures interoperability and integration with a wide range of digital services, applications and equipment – open to all brands. Being open means it supports not only Straumann Solutions, but also Straumann Group Brands and third party providers.

COLLABORATION

The platform's open architecture fosters a seamless collaborative environment, enabling effortless data sharing among treatment stakeholders, including dental labs, restorative clinicians, and surgical specialists. This streamlined communication enhances efficiency and promotes stronger ownership and accountability for patients' cases.

SECURITY

The platform is designed with data security and privacy at its core, ensuring you can safely store, process, and share patient information while fully complying with regulations.

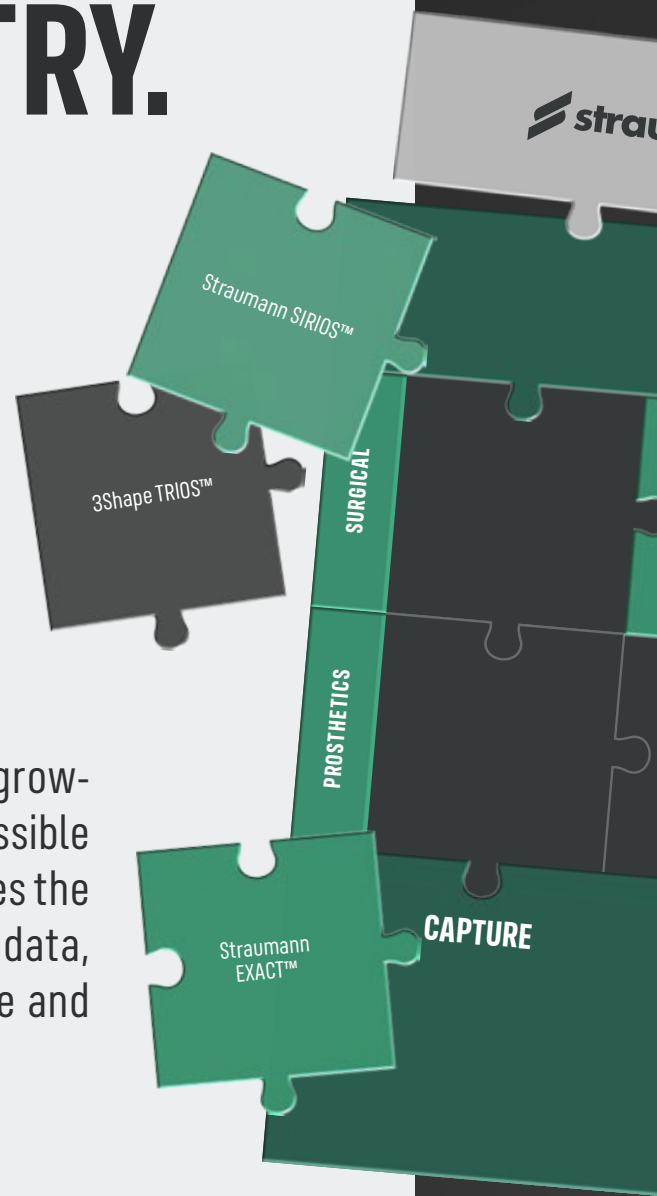

PATIENT ENGAGEMENT

The AXS platform supports dental practices in providing patients with visual insights into their treatment journey and potential outcomes. By fostering patient engagement, AXS enhances informed decision-making, consent, and a more connected care experience throughout the process.

Embrace the future of dental care with seamless collaboration.

STRAUMANN® INTEGRATED DIGITAL ECOSYSTEM. THE FUTURE OF DIGITAL DENTISTRY.

The Straumann® integrated digital ecosystem is a growing network of digital solutions, connected and accessible through the Straumann AXS™ platform. It maximizes the benefits of digital tools, by seamlessly integrating data, software and services, enhancing user experience and efficiency across many workflows in dentistry.

 Moving forward, there is a growing emphasis on integrating digital experiences with traditional in-clinic care. More than a trend, it's a fundamental shift in how dental practices operate and engage with their patients. ”

Straumann Research and Quote from DSO Summit 2023

INTEGRATED AND CONNECTED. TAILORED FOR YOU.

The Straumann AXS™ Platform not only grants you access to the Straumann® integrated digital ecosystem, but it also empowers you to create your own personalized digital ecosystem.

With digital tools, solutions, and services that are essential for your practice, the platform adapts and grows with you.

There is a growing demand for a digital environment that combines convenience, simplicity, and efficiency with modularity, security, and compatibility across software, tools, and devices. The Straumann® integrated digital ecosystem meets this need with a holistic approach, considering the entire practice, all stakeholders, and the patient experience.

The Straumann AXS™ platform seamlessly integrates Straumann® solutions, workflows, and third-party offerings into a unified ecosystem, revolutionizing the way dental offices operate, collaborate, and connect.

INTEGRATED SOFTWARE, SYSTEMS AND DEVICES.

Straumann AXS™ is more than a platform—it's the future of dentistry. Connect everything in the cloud, streamline workflows, and focus on what matters most: your patients.
